CANNA CON[®]
WHERE THE CANNABIS INDUSTRY DOES BUSINESS

Welcome Letter

Washington State Convention Center
February 15th-17th, 2018

Dear Exhibitor,

Welcome to CannaCon® 2018! We are very excited to partner with your business as we move to the Washington State Convention Center in Seattle, WA February 15-17, 2018! On behalf of everyone at CannaCon® and our general services contractor, DWA trade show & expo, I would like to express our appreciation for your participation. We are looking forward to another busy, energetic, and informative event at our new location. This Exhibitor Manual has been carefully planned and organized to help you prepare for a successful show! You will be receiving an Exhibitor Services Kit from DWA trade show and expo under separate heading or attached to this document, which will provide you with information on shipping and other exhibit -related products and services.

The CannaCon® team, including DWA trade show & expo, are available to help you with your exhibiting experience. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact your CannaCon® representative directly.

Let's have a great show!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "RS", is written over a faint background image of the Washington State Convention Center building.

Robert Smart, CannaCon®

Rules & Regulations

Washington State Convention Center
February 15th-17th, 2018

Aisle Space

Exhibitors shall not solicit business in the aisle or engage in activity that leads to congestion in the aisles.

American with Disabilities Act

Exhibitor shall ensure that their exhibit will be accessible to the full extent required by law.

Booth Staffing

Exhibits must be manned at all times during official show hours. Booth representatives shall wear show identification badges provided by CannaCon®. No other identification will be considered valid.

Cannabis

Washington State Convention Center Strictly prohibits any consumption of cannabis on their property (indoor or outdoor) included but not limited to smoking, vaping, and edibles.

Decimeter Guidelines

Sound presentations will be permitted if tuned to conversational levels and if not objectionable to neighboring exhibitors. Sound must not carry beyond the display area. Noise from exhibitor demonstrations or presentations should not interfere or disturb surrounding exhibitors and their patrons or cause aisles to become blocked.

Demonstrations/Booth Entertainment

As a matter of safety and courtesy, exhibitors shall conduct presentations and demonstrations in a manner that ensures all personnel and attendees remain within the limits of the contracted exhibit space. CannaCon® does not allow live music to be played on the show floor.

Dismantling/Load Out

All displays must remain intact until the official close of the show. No exhibitor may begin dismantling, packing or moving-out prior to the close of show at 5:00 p.m. on Saturday. Exhibits must be removed from exhibit hall by 11:59 p.m. on Saturday, February 17th. Objects that have been left behind in the exhibit space will be removed by DWA trade show and expo services at the expense of the exhibitor.

Electricity

CannaCon® will provide booths upon request a standard 05 amps 120 volts of electricity at their booths. Email Cassie@cannacon.org to request electricity for your booth by December 15th, 2017. Exhibitors that do not request electricity by December 15th, will be responsible for acquiring it on their own from WSCC.

Exhibit Booth Payment

CannaCon® will permit no exhibit installation unless all fees are paid in full.

Rules & Regulations

Washington State Convention Center
February 15th-17th, 2018

Exhibit Hall Access (For Exhibitors on show days)

Exhibitors will be allowed access one (1) hour before the show opens and must exit the show promptly at show closing. The security schedule will be set with this in mind so please be aware that you will not be allowed access to the hall at any other times.

Exhibitor Credentials

Exhibitors will retrieve their "Exhibitor Badges" from the CannaCon® registration desk upon check in on Wednesday February 14th. Credentials and additional badges can be purchased at the registration desk.

Exhibitor Service Desk

The exhibitor service desk will be located in the entry foyer and will be open during official show hours.

Exposed Walls

All exposed parts of constructed displays must be finished to present an attractive appearance, when viewed from aisles or other adjoining booths. Exposed back and sidewalls may not display logos or advertising.

Fire and Safety Regulations

Exhibitors are expected to comply with all city regulations in effect at the WSCC. All material used in the construction of an exhibit/display must be non-combustible and flameproof. Exhibit booths shall not interfere with access to emergency exits or restrict visibility of emergency exit signs. Exhibits and displays may not obstruct any aisles or public space. The Fire Marshal has final say on any jurisdiction disputes.

Floor Covering/Carpet

The exhibit hall aisles are carpeted. You may order custom carpet for your booth through DWA trade show and expo services.

Gratuities

The solicitation of gratuities by service personnel for services rendered is against CannaCon® policy. Persons soliciting gratuities shall be reported to show management immediately. Exhibitors should note that advance gratuities given to service personnel (with or without their solicitation) will not expedite the service the exhibitor will receive.

Hanging Signs

No signs or advertising devices shall be displayed outside exhibit space. Nothing shall be posted, tacked or otherwise attached to columns, walls, floors, or other parts of the building or furniture.

Hosted Events by Suppliers/Hotel meetings/Hospitality functions

As a courtesy to all conference participants, CannaCon® requires that companies planning to host hospitality events schedule them so as not to conflict with scheduled CannaCon® activities such as seminars, receptions, exhibit hours, award ceremonies, group meals, or other conference functions.

Rules & Regulations

Washington State Convention Center
February 15th-17th, 2018

Installation

Installation of displays must be completed no later than 11:59 p.m. Wednesday, February 14th, unless otherwise discussed with show management. If installation has not been completed at that point, show management reserves the right to have the display installation completed at the expense of the exhibitor, re-sell or to assign the booth to another exhibitor.

Insurance & Liability

Exhibitors shall, at their sole cost and expense, procure and maintain throughout the term of their contract for exhibit space, comprehensive general liability insurance against claims for bodily injury and property damage occurring in/upon or resulting from the premises leased.

Literature/Product/Sample Distribution

Exhibitors must confine their exhibit activities to the space for which they have contracted. Distribution outside the booth space is strictly prohibited. Aramark is the food and beverage provider for WSCC, any exhibitor wanting to sample needs to fill out the sampling form. Distribution of Cannabis products is strictly prohibited and includes flower, edibles and concentrates.

Load-In

Load-in is scheduled for Wednesday, February 14th between 11:00 a.m. and 11:59 p.m. Exhibitors with special load-in requirements, or those who are unable to load-in during the scheduled time, should contact Cassie Patrick at Cassie@cannacon.org.

Marketing Resources

CannaCon[®] is committed to helping you have a successful experience. As a CannaCon[®] exhibitor, we will make resources available to you in the Exhibitor Resources section of our Website. Visit this section for ways to promote your participation and presence at CannaCon[®]. Easy ways to promote your presence at CannaCon[®] are posting a CannaCon[®] banner on your website, reference the show and your booth number in each sales representative outgoing email signature, and sending email campaigns to your customer base. Our team here at CannaCon[®] will work with you to create a marketing program that is unique to your business. Take advantage of our sponsorship and event marketing opportunities, and set yourself apart from your competition!

P.A. Announcements

Show Management will restrict announcements to general show and public safety information only.

Parking

WSCC's main parking garage entrance is located on 8th avenue between Pike and Seneca streets, all day parking is $29 a day. To receive discounted parking vouchers email Cassie@cannacon.org by December 15th. Freeway Park Garages' entrance is on Hubbell Place between Pike and Seneca streets, all day parking is $28 a day, however we do not have access to discounted tickets for this garage.

Rules & Regulations

Washington State Convention Center
February 15th-17th, 2018

Photography/Videotaping

Photographing and videotaping within the exhibit hall is restricted to photographers and video crews engaged by exhibitors and registered with CannaCon® to photograph or videotape their specific exhibit. Contact Cassie Patrick at Cassie@cannacon.org for press, photographer, or videographer access and registration information.

Sales

Display goods on exhibition may not be removed during the exhibition except by special permission of show management.

Show Program

Each exhibitor is entitled to a company listing in the official show program. To submit your company listing information go to <https://form.jotform.us/72475747684169>. Though every effort will be made to include all exhibitors, listings received after December 15th, 2017 may not be included in show program.

Smoking Policy

The WSCC is a non-smoking facility. Smoking is allowed in designated areas only.

Storage

Storage of any kind behind exhibit booths will not be permitted. Please contact DWA trade show and expo services for accessible storage capabilities and rates.

Sub-Leasing

Exhibitors' cannot assign this agreement, in whole or in part, without the prior written approval of CannaCon®. In the event of the merger of two exhibitors, CannaCon® will use reasonable efforts to consolidate the spaces contracted by the exhibitors. However, if that is not possible, the surviving exhibitor will be liable for the exhibit space at the original location contracted.

Use of CannaCon® Logo

Exhibitor may not alter the CannaCon® logo. Exhibitors may use the show logo to promote their participation in the show. The show logo can be downloaded from the official show website <http://www.cannacon.org/>.

Violation of Show Rules and Regulations

If an exhibitor is in violation of one or more of the rules listed above, the exhibitor may be asked to leave the show, removing his exhibit at his own expense and will jeopardize his right to exhibit at future CannaCon® events. Any and all matters or questions not specifically covered by the show rules and regulations shall be subject solely to the decision of show management. The rules and regulations may be amended at any time and all amendments made shall be binding on exhibitors.

Seattle Dining
Washington State Convention Center
February 15th-17th, 2018

You're never far from amazing food in Seattle! Whether you're craving a milkshake or a gourmet meal, regional favorites like fresh salmon and bittersweet rhubarb are locally sourced, fresh from the market and incorporated into uniquely Northwest dishes. From classic burger joints to homegrown breweries, the food scene is exceptional. Explore the local cuisine and find your new favorite restaurant.

Seattle Fine Dining

Canlis 2576 Aurora Ave N 206.283.3313

The iconic Seattle restaurant known for its outstanding service, wine and Northwest cuisine celebrated its 60th birthday in December 2010. Overlooking Lake Union, Canlis offers fine dining in a midcentury-modern home.

Palisade 2601 W Marina PL 206.285.1000

Seattle's classic landmark restaurant featuring Seattle's Best Brunch, daily Lunch and Dinner, Raw Bar, amazing views of Seattle, and an indoor saltwater pond which is home to over 100 Steelhead

Metropolitan Grill 820 2nd Ave 206.624.3287

At The Met, the focus is on Prime beef. We built our reputation on the classics: filet mignon, New York peppercorn steak, Delmonico, porterhouse and Chateaubriand carved tableside. Corporate Chef Eric Hellner hand-selects each cut of Prime Double R Ranch beef from Washington State and American Wagyu from Idaho. We have even developed proprietary seasonings for our beef. Steaks are then seared over the high heat of imported mesquite charcoal, ensuring the most tender, juicy flavor.

Seattle Casual Dining

Seattle Wood Fired Pizza 1300 Elliott Ave W 206.612.7100

Authentic, Handmade Applewood Fired Pizza using all natural and organic ingredients.

Dukes Chowder House 901 Fairview Ave N 206.282.9963

Local chain serving market-fresh seafood, grass-fed burgers & cocktails in informal surroundings.

Steelhead Diner 95 Pine St 206.625.0129

Laid-back option for Pacific Northwestern comforts including jumbo crab cakes & gumbo.

Argosy Cruises

1101 Alaskan Way, Seattle, WA 98101

For locals and visitors alike, there's an Argosy Cruises experience for whatever you're looking for. Take a sightseeing boat tour of Elliott Bay or the Ballard Locks. Savor Seattle's early days with the Taste of Seattle History cruise, or enjoy a romantic dinner cruise with live music and dancing.

Pike Place Market

1st and Pike Street, Seattle, WA 98101

Open year-round, this is Seattle's most iconic attraction — and it's filled with tasty treats. There's so much to love about Pike Place Market. Aisles of gleaming fruits and vegetables, tables overflowing with fresh floral bouquets, and booth after booth selling all manner of locally made jewelry, clothing and gifts. It's also a great place to enjoy many fantastic eateries serving prepared dishes. When you're not sure what kind of food you're in the mood to eat, just head to Pike Place Market and sample a little of everything. There's also the whole fish-throwing thing, too.

Seattle Center

305 Harrison St, Seattle, WA 98109

Four museums, 11 theaters, five gardens, six fountains, more than a dozen restaurants, a skate park and an events arena. In short, this is Seattle's entertainment hub, with plenty of fun for arts and culture lovers of all stripes. No wonder more than 10 million people visit Seattle Center each year. Big-name attractions on site include the EMP Museum, Pacific Science Center, Chihuly Garden and Glass and, of course, the skyline-defining Space Needle.

Woodland Park Zoo

5500 Phinney Ave N, Seattle, WA 98103

Woodland Park Zoo is an award winning zoological garden famed for creating revolutionary naturalistic exhibits that changed the face of zoos worldwide. The zoo includes 92 acres of exhibits and public spaces which features over 300 animal species, including 35 endangered and 5 threatened species.

Snoqualmie Falls

6501 Railroad Ave SE Snoqualmie, Washington, 98024 GPS: 47.542932,-121.836834

Snoqualmie Falls is one of Washington state's most popular scenic attractions. More than 1.5 million visitors come to the Falls every year. At the falls, you will find a two-acre park, gift shop, observation deck, the Salish Lodge and the famous 270 foot waterfall.
